

Erin Powell

Cayman Islands
D +1 345 640 5292
E erin.powell@ffp.ky

Erin Powell is an Analyst in the Forensics and Investigations team. She provides support to court supervised liquidations and litigious appointments of the firm, including on cases where there have been allegations of fraud, crime and other illicit activity.

Erin's role includes eDiscovery task administration, scoping and review, research and investigations, factual analysis and assessment of corporate records, assessment of proof of debts, litigation support and case administration. She is also a key member of the onboarding team and provides direct support to the Corporate Service team.

Prior to joining FFP, Erin worked in financial services in the Cayman Islands where she gained experience in legal, fiduciary, corporate, regulatory and compliance services.

Erin holds an Associate of Arts degree in Social Sciences from the University College Cayman Islands (2015), a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from the University of Liverpool (2018) and a diploma in Professional Practice (PPC) from Oxford Brookes University in Law (2022). Erin is a member of RISA (Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association) in the Cayman Islands, being part of the Insol International, and a member of the IWIRC (International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring) network.